

Improve Your Writing Tips

Tip 1: Stop using “very”

Tip 1: Stop using “very”

Tip 1: Stop using “very”

very big	enormous, huge, massive
very important
very good very bad
very beautiful
very ugly
very easy
very difficult

Tip 1: Stop using “very”

very big	enormous, huge, massive
very important	crucial, necessary, paramount
very good	outstanding, excellent, superb,
very bad	awful, terrible, disgraceful
very beautiful	stunning, striking, gorgeous
very ugly	hideous, horrible, unattractive
very easy	simple, effortless
very difficult	demanding, challenging, tough

Tip 2: Use specific verbs

Tip 2: Use specific verbs

Change the verbs in these sentences.

1. She went to India for vacation.
2. A good manager knows how to give work to employees.
3. I am hoping to get an offer from Cambridge University.
4. Nowadays, people often talk about the environment.
5. Cars make more pollution than buses and trains.

Tip 2: Use specific verbs

Change the verbs in these sentences.

1. She went to India for vacation.
traveled to / visited
2. A good manager knows how to give work to employees.
delegate
3. I am hoping to get an offer from Cambridge University.
receive
4. Nowadays, people often talk about the environment.
discuss / debate
5. Cars make more pollution than buses and trains.
produce

Tip 2: Use specific verbs

Change the verbs in these sentences.

1. She traveled to /visited India for vacation.
2. A good manager knows how to delegate ...
3. I am hoping to receive an offer from Cambridge...
4. Nowadays, people often discuss/debate the environme
5. Cars produce more pollution than buses and trains.

Tip 3: Don't use contractions

Tip 4: Be careful with spelling

Tip 4: Spelling

1. I played the piano untill I went to university.
2. It's important not to loose your car keys.
3. Heavy pollution can effect people's health.
4. The affects of pollution on people's health is worrying.
5. It is important to work hard everyday to achieve your goal.

Tip 4: Spelling

1. I played the piano untill I went to university.
until
2. It's important not to loose your car keys.
lose
3. Heavy pollution can effect people's health.
affect
4. The affects of pollution on people's health is worrying.
effects
5. It is important to work hard everyday to achieve your goal.
every day

Tip 5:

Be careful with uncountable nouns

Tip 5: Be careful with uncountable nouns

1. advice
2. information
3. research
4. traffic
5. accommodation
6. evidence
7. homework
8. money
9. fuel
10. furniture
11. nature
12. poverty
13. luggage
14. news
15. knowledge
16. equipment