Example Question

Films can tell us a lot about the country where they were made. What have you learned about another country from watching its movies?

- Write about my experience
- Country: Korea
- Things I learned: Korean eating culture & language
- Examples to back up my ideas
- Topic sentence, supporting sentences, conclusion

Example Answer

I am particularly fond of Korean movies, and I have learned so many aspects of Korean culture from watching its films.

Topic sentence

Example Answer

One of the most interesting things that I have learned is about Korean eating customs. When dining in Korea, it's common place to share food.

Supporting idea one

Example Answer

Examples

One of the most interesting things that I have learned is about Korean eating customs. When dining in Korea, it's common place to share food. For example, at a restaurant Koreans usually order a large amount of food that is shared among all guests rather than each person ordering their own dish, which is typical in Western countries. Eating the Korean way means eating from the same bowl since sharing is a big part of their culture.

Another useful thing I have learned is the Korean language.

Supporting idea two

Example Answer

Another useful thing I have learned is the Korean language. Even though I am studying Korean at a college, watching Korean movies has taught me a lot of spoken idioms and slang expressions that do not appear in textbooks. This has helped me to expand my knowledge of spoken Korean and made me sound more fluent.

Supporting idea two

Example Answer

To sum up, from my experience watching foreign movies can be a fantastic source of education as well as entertainment.
