Concluding sentence

Example

Concluding sentence: In conclusion, even though many people argue that we should not pay taxes, based on the reasons discussed, I believe taxation is vital in order to maintain a high standard of living.

Sample Answer

Prompt: Some people believe they should keep all the money they earn and not pay tax to the state. Do you agree or disagree?

I strongly disagree with the statement that individuals should not pay taxes to the state for two main reasons. First and foremost, taxpayer money collected by the government is used to fund basic amenities and public services, such as running water, schools, and hospitals. It's important to remember that without taxpayer money we would not have access to such basic services and our lives would be worse off as a result. Additionally, taxes help stabilize the economy. Through taxes, the government is able to pay off debts and invest in the country, which, in turn, leads to a more stable and prosperous place to live. In conclusion, even though many people argue that we should not pay taxes, based on the reasons discussed, I believe taxation is vital in order to maintain a high standard of living.
